A RISING STAR – MERAJ HUSSAIN

Our very own Meraj Hussein, from Grade X, is definitely a Rising Star in Karate, as is evident in his fine performance in the recently held 16th Funakoshi Gichin Cup, World Karate Championship, in Japan. Approximately 2000 players from 56 countries participated in this prestigious championship. Meraj gave a great account of his Karate skills and was amongst the top 16 players in his category. Indeed, a recognition of his inherent talent, and all the dedication and hard work that goes into the making of a champ. A moment of pride and joy for his family, friends and admirers, and all of us at L.O.S.C.!

Furthermore, he also passed the 2nd Dan Black Belt at the World Training Camp held on the sidelines of this mega-event.

Congratulations Meraj!

Not Any Conversation!

Understanding your own-self, your actions and the validation for choosing from the options as perceived by you, is a recurring exercise, or should be, in the course of the ever-evolving journey of life. A selfdialogue is necessary to take stock of our journey's progression. The objectives that have been achieved, or the factors inhibiting our momentum, need some adjustments, a recalibration of sorts. It could be anything – surviving during economic hardships that cause strains in relationships. What needs to be sacrificed at the cost of what? Maybe, in hindsight, mistakes, and lifestyle changes to cope with trying times, have messed up your mind, and have made you vulnerable and compromised. Calm those nerves!
