CHARACTER COUNTS: ASSESSING MANNERS AND COURTESY IN STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

At LOSC, we believe that academic excellence must go hand in hand with character development. As such, manners and courtesy are integral components of our student assessment policy. Students are regularly observed and evaluated on their behavior, attitude, and interpersonal interactions as part of their overall development. The objectives of our student assessment policy on manners and courtesy are to foster a respectful and inclusive environment, develop students' social and emotional intelligence, and encourage them to embody kindness, empathy, and humility in their daily lives. Students are assessed on several key indicators that reflect these values.

These include respectful communication, such as speaking politely to teachers, peers, and support staff; demonstrating proper classroom etiquette by raising hands before speaking, listening attentively, and following instructions; and showing kindness and empathy by helping others, understanding different perspectives, and avoiding hurtful behavior. Additionally, students are encouraged to express gratitude through courteous expressions like "please," "thank you," and "excuse me," and to show respect for space and property by taking care of school materials and maintaining cleanliness.

WE ARE PAKISTAN — THE NATION RISES IN US!

TO THE BRAVE STUDENTS OF PAKISTAN

You are not just the future you are the voice, the spirit, and the strength of Pakistan today. In every corner of the world, youth rise for their homeland. And here, in this land of green and white, we rise with more with faith, with love, and with unshakable pride.

Pakistan is not just a map, not just a country it is an idea, born from the dream of freedom, built by the hands of those who never gave up. Now, that torch is in your hands. Let the world see that we are not afraid. That our pens are mightier than weapons, our unity louder than any noise, and our dreams bigger than any threat. Stand with your head high. Speak with purpose. Act with honor. Because when you walk into your classroom, when you raise the flag, when you help a friend, or speak the truth you are building Pakistan. So let's promise no matter what the headlines say, no matter what the world sees we will be the light, the hope, and the strength of this nation. Pakistan lives in us. And as long as we believe, it can never be broken.
